TEASING SOMETHING SPECIAL: BUBBA LICORICE

Here's a little exclusive for our loyal followers – something you'll want to keep an eye out for. Sandeep Sharma, our CEO, has been hard at work on a brand new screenplay titled Bubba Licorice.

This project is close to our hearts, as it's inspired by some real-life events, and it has a truly unique twist. The film is about Sandeep, and his best friend, Licorice, a lovable dog who is as full of personality as any human co-star. And here's the fun part: Licorice isn't just a character in the film – he's our very own dog, and he's going to be sharing the screen with Sandeep in this heartfelt, hilarious, and sometimes unexpected adventure.

The story explores the bond between humans and their pets in a way that's never been seen before. Bubba Licorice promises to be an emotional rollercoaster with moments of laughter, love, and pure joy. We can't wait to share more as we dive into pre-production later this year!
